The Week Ahead

We are ready for our new adventures! These are a few things we explored last week.

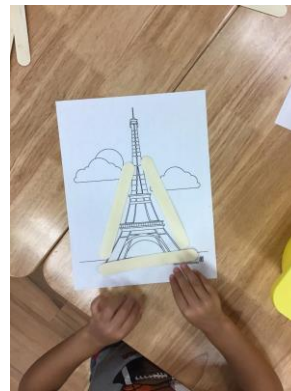

Playing with Panda bot!

Building a Leaning Tower of Pisa

Creating the Eiffel Tower

We will explore Armenia and talk about their cable cars. Tuesday we will walk the Great Wall and learn about Giant Pandas. Wednesday we will research Bengal tigers and Indian elephants. Thursday we will take a trip to the Philippines and take a closer look at coconuts and the many ways it can be used. Friday we will paint cherry blossom trees to display in the class.

We will have Splash Day Friday! ☺

We will be reading Asian Children's Favorite Stories and discussing how their fairy tales are similar and different to ours.
